

Shelley Heffler was born and raised in the Bronx, New York. She attended the Fashion Institute of Technology where she earned a degree in Interior Design, followed by a Master's degree in fine art and a teaching credential.

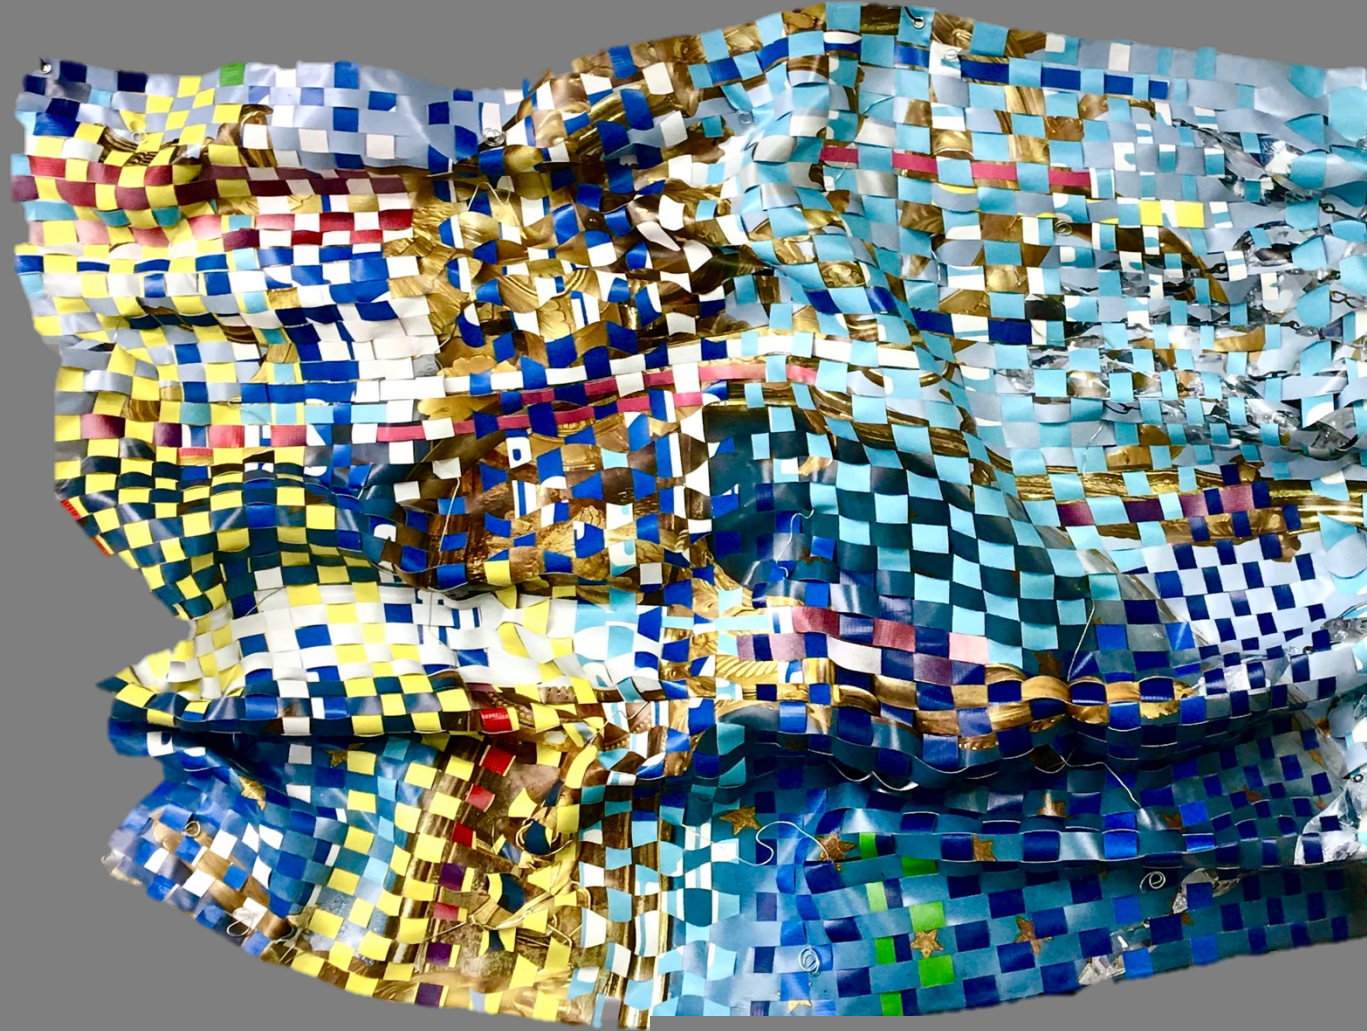

Her exhibition history includes the Los Angeles County Museum of Art rental gallery, Los Angeles Municipal Art Gallery and group shows through out the United States. Her work has been reviewed in the British magazine Hedge, Los Angeles Times, L. A. Independent and Elevated Magazine. She was nominated for the Awards in the Visual Arts and one to watch on Saatchi Galleries. Her paintings and photographs are in the collections across the U.S. and Europe.

Since the pandemic, Shelley has created outstanding community outreach programs, 'We are Home', where 130 quilt pieces were donated and auctioned to benefit the unhoused. She received an Artist in Resident in Inglewood's Rogers Park, 'It Takes a Village' quilt project, bringing community of Inglewood together. It is now on permanent display in the Inglewood Library. Currently her studio located at the Perez Arts District in Cathedral City, California.

Shelley Heffler

Contemporary art

Crown and Glory 42" x 60"
Repurposed billboard vinyl

68-845 Perez Road
Building H studio 14
Cathedral City, CA 92234

www.shelleyheffler.com
Instagram:shelleyhefflerart
818-679-8664